Bratislava, December 16 (OTS) - The International Peace Committee supported by Jan, as, CK HYDROTOUR, ATT Investments, Swiss Aqua Technologies, the Co-operative of Vienna Insurance Group and the First Building Savings Bank and several members were also co-convened on 12 December 2019.

* Fourteenth "Peace Prize from Slovakia 2015" for WFP and its President KM Quinn * Enviably plurality of opinions and their impetus * Peace must be a real priority in practical life.

They learned in time but did not find the time ...

Knowing that the Ambassador and President of the World Food Prize Foundation, Kenneth M. Quinn, also received an invitation to this meeting, representatives of diplomatic missions of the Great Powers received a personal invitation three weeks to five weeks ago to ask the public and the International Peace Committee in person peacekeeping and even the activities of their governments. The US Ambassador B. Brink did not respond at all, so memories of more than good relations with the former five ambassadors, especially with the first Ambassadors T. Russel and R.

association so far. However, diplomats were not missing, as were members and guests from Afghanistan, the Czech Republic, Croatia, the Federal Republic of Germany, Russia and the United States.

Enough food is a "weapon of peace"

Ambassador KM Quinn came with his wife Le Son Quinn and co-workers to invite the association and his MMV. Among the representatives of the state, the President of the National Council of the Slovak Republic A. Danko and the Deputy Prime Minister of the Slovak Republic and the Minister of Agriculture and Rural Development of the Slovak Republic G. Matečná have reserved time for a more than two-hour friendly meeting with him. On the eve of the formal assembly, they discussed the development of good relations with the US, the need for a constant dialogue between the superpowers, as well as other states, to ensure security and a peaceful life, as well as creating conditions for quality and food security. The stimulus for the host was information about the Slovaks in the state of Iowa, and even about the local Czech-Slovak museum, but also visits by top Chinese and Russian officials and exemplary agriculture.

The ceremonial gathering, that was because it began with E. Suchon's Devin Fantare, but many of the participants said that it was again an enviable plurality of views with the sole aim of humanizing company. This was confirmed by a speech by the first Minister of Foreign Relations of the Slovak Republic P. Demeš on the topic "On Connecting People Who Act for a New Quality of Life and Peace on Earth. He also responded to the introductory word of the chairman P. Kasalovský, which will be published in the title banner and in the sound recording at www.hospodarskyklub.sk. He appreciated the position of the Association abroad as well as his work for the good name of Slovakia abroad. The first two laureates of the "Peace Prize from Slovakia 2015" were presented by A. Barčík and M. Babčanová. Their thoughts will be in English on sound recording and elsewhere www.hospodarskyklub.sk.

Enough food is an anti-war barrier

A rare guest, KM Quinn, spoke of the organization he has been managing for twenty years. About its results, and above all what we, as people, have to do for peace and dignified life for as many people as possible, but also for the protection and creation of the environment, but also for the new quality of man as such. His contribution will be in English on a sound recording, but in the near future he will send an authorized text so that we can translate it correctly. He appreciated the possibility of discussing with representatives of the association and its MMV, and expressed the belief that the Slovak tradition would develop in its home state of Iowa.

Human homage to WFP and its President KM Quinn

After the ceremonial fanfare the announcement of the results of the MMV voting on the anniversary day of the Hiroshima tragedy was presented by P. Kasalovský. His speech is published elsewhere and in English is on the sound recording in the title banner at www.hospodarskyklub.sk. The ceremony was carried out by members of the International Peace Committee Major General. S. Naďovič, prof. J. Masarik and M. Babčanová. The diploma reads: "For the development of the vision of its founder dr. Mr Borlauga with exceptional incentives to improve the quality, quantity and availability of foodstuffs worldwide !

Developing good relations with the USA

The founding member and representative of the association since 1993. P. Kasalovský declared the 201st laureate of the Golden Biath from the Slovak Republic RNDr. Paul Demesa PhD., First Minister of International Affairs of the Slovak Republic, and currently a political analyst and civic activist "In joining the wise and energetic people for peace and civilization progress, as well as contribution to the friendly relations between Slovakia and the United States." Spolugratulantkou to this homage was M. Babčanová.

Final discussion with amb. KM Quinnom

Given the fatigue of the WFP President's collaborators and other circumstances, the Assembly's agenda was shortened. The social or rather discussion meeting continued until sunset. SOPK President, Honorary President of the World Chamber Federation and MMV member Peter Mihók shortly afterwards invited the Ambassador and President of the WFP KM Quinn to his dinner, his wife, colleagues, association representative and MMV P. Kasalovský, as well as members of MMV P. Čatloš, F. Pancurák and Ambassador J. Bratka. More than a 3-hour discussion confirmed the agreement on most of the relationship issues in international life and on how to solve them. The invaluable importance of the visit is the impulse for mutual cooperation not only of the
